WICKERSHAM DENIES BREAK WITH KNOX

Attorney General Announces Plan to Push Coffee Trust Suits.

Attorney General Wickersham today denied that there had been a split between the Department of Justice and the Department of State because the former had brought suit against the "Coffee trust."

The Attorney General says he will pursue the matter in the courts. Regarding the attack of the Brazilian ambassador, Senor da Gama, on the United States for bringing the suit, which will seriously affect the South American republic's export trade in coffee, it was stated that the State Department today that no official notice will be taken of the incident by Secretary Knox.

Officials here are of the opinion that Senor da Gama's attack on this Government was undoubtedly made for home consumption, especially among Brazilians interested in the coffee industry.

FRENCH STEAMSHIP NEARING NEW YORK RAMMED BY LINER

Collision in Clear Weather Within View of Broadway Skyscrapers.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The Porto Rican liner Berwind, outward bound today, rammed the French line steamship Hudson, coming in from Bordeaux, about a mile off Sixty-ninth street, Brooklyn, tearing a big hole in the port bow of the Hudson.

Eighty-one persons, many of them women, were on board the Hudson, and were thrown into a panic when the crash came. They rushed upon deck in scant attire and it was with difficulty that members of the crew restrained some from leaping overboard.

Meantime Capt. G. David had pointed the Hudson's nose toward the Long Island railroad docks at the foot of Sixty-fifth street, Brooklyn, and was proceeding ahead at full speed. He did not know what damage had been done to the Hudson, and was taking no chances of having her sink.

A strange feature of the collision, which will be investigated, is that it occurred in clear weather, and that Captain David saw the Berwind when she was some distance away. He believes that Captain Christopher of the Berwind misunderstood his signal, or obeyed it too late.

Part of the bow of the Berwind was torn away when she struck the Hudson.

She turned about and made for the docks of the New York and Porto Rico Steamship Company, which owns her. The Hudson has just cleared quarantine, and was making for pier 34, in the North River, when Captain David saw the Berwind off his port bow. He signalled to her to keep on the port bow of his boat. He thinks Captain Christopher understood the signal to mean that he was to bear to starboard for this is what he did.

USES KNIFE TO BACK UP HIS CONVICTIONS

New Jersey Man Arrested for Stabbing Distributor of Roosevelt Circulars.

METUCHEN, N. J., May 29.—While distributing campaign literature for Truman T. Pierson, chairman of the local Roosevelt campaign committee, yesterday, Alonzo Robinson was stabbed in the left shoulder by John Parkins. Robinson placed a bundle of circulars entitled "Catching Up With Roosevelt" in Parkins' front yard. Parkins objected to Robinson circulating Roosevelt literature, and attacked him. Robinson insisted on registering a vote for Roosevelt before a doctor took him home. Parkins was arrested.

GAYNOR URGES NEW FEDERAL BUILDINGS FOR NEW YORK CITY

Mayor Heads Delegation to Support O'Gorman Bill Before Senate.

Before the Senate committee on Public Buildings and Grounds today, Mayor Gaynor, of New York; W. R. Wilcox, former postmaster of New York and now of the Public Service Commission, and President George McAneny of the Borough of Manhattan, appeared as a New York delegation to urge the O'Gorman bill for the appropriation of $5,000,000 to acquire a site or sites for a post-office and federal building in New York city.

Senator O'Gorman presented the members of the delegation and urged the bill in a brief speech.

Mayor Gaynor gave the bill his warm support and discussed the necessity for the appropriation.

Mr. Wilcox said the present postoffice was never adapted to its use. He said the federal building and postoffice should be separate and suggested that the erection of a new postoffice would do away with the necessity of the Wall street and Hudson terminal stations, and that a new building erected in the district south of the present postoffice and west of Broadway would greatly facilitate the handling of mails in New York.

PREDICT DEATHS IN MOTOR RACES AT INDIANAPOLIS

Experts Believe Slippery Track Will Cause Trouble for Speed Kings.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 29.—That death will take its toll from sport tomorrow when the giant racing cars entered for the 500 mile races here pound their way around the Motor Speedway is the belief of automobile experts who are here to watch the race. That it may mean the finish of big automobile race events was the prediction of some.

The track is slippery from recent rains. Even a slight shower between now and the time for the opening of the race would keep it in this condition. The cars racing this year are larger and faster than any ever before entered. The time made in the elimination trials indicates that the big cars will maintain a speed never before dreamed of in such an event. Twenty-five cars with the most daring drivers in the country will compete. All these things, say the motor experts, threaten many accidents before the race is over.

The births numbered 742,114, the lowest ever recorded. On the other hand France compares favorably with other countries in marriages, which totaled 307,788 for the year. Divorces increased over the previous year, numbering 12,065.

Mrs. B. F. Lantz, of Kittery, Me., has written Postmaster General Hitchcock to obtain the address of her husband, who was in the detachment of Marines sent from Kittery to Cuba. Mrs. Lantz's letter states pathetically that she was cooking in a hotel when her husband went away to war, and that she did not even know he had received orders until he was gone, and she had no chance to even kiss him good-by.
